Whom It May Concern

With my excellent background as a Senior Executive, Project Manager and Business Analyst for major international companies, and successful experience serving as Business Consultant and Implementation Manager for clients of the Big-4 consulting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers, I possess a broad understanding of company needs in many industries.

My key strengths lie in evaluating business strategies and processes, and coordinating large-scale initiatives from the early requirements gathering stage through final delivery. I am pleased to say that my outstanding leadership, organizational change and management experience, great collaborative team communicator and client development skills have significantly influenced the success of numerous companies.

During my career, I have provided leadership for global initiatives while gaining a direct knowledge of many aspects of business, technology, banking, finance, supply chain, manufacturing, operations, distribution, customer service, and sales. My qualifications include the following:

- Sound judgment and decision making abilities with a talent for improving business practices, enhancing operations, and providing permanent solutions to problems.
- Consistent leadership skills; able to work extremely well with clients and staff.
- Strategic thinker within the workplace, researcher who employ critical and creative analysis, and ethical decision maker.
- Strong background in project management, strategy development, formulation analysis, and best practices.
- Experience leading and supporting technology solutions in the US, Colombia, Chile, Peru, Brazil, and Argentina.

I invite you to review my Professional Background. I could be a tremendous asset to meet your current and future needs. Please contact me to schedule a time to discuss any opportunity you may have and my potential contributions in greater detail.

Kindest regards,

Fabio Andrés Moreno
